Many organizations use a “thermometer” approach much like United Way uses to measure successful fundraising efforts. These can be included on communication boards within the ED that share key information under the Five Pillars: People, Service, Quality, Finance, and Growth. Here’s an example of one “thermometer” approach for patient satisfaction:

Figure 6.1